Domaine Trinites `Le Portail` Faugeres 2010

Country	France
Region	French Regional, Languedoc The Languedoc is a vast region stretching across much of the south and Mediterranean and is France`s single largest vineyard entity for its Vins de Pays wines. Within the Languedoc lie several distinctly identified Vins de Pays (including the l`Aude, Gard and Hérault) and many generic appellations that maintain traditional local blends and wine styles such as Minervois, Corbières, Pic Saint Loup and Fitou.
Producer	Domaine des Trinites Simon and Monica Coulshaw identified the exceptional potential of Domaine des Trinites in 2006 and moved the family to the Languedoc after visiting and dismissing more that 100 unsuitable vineyard sites. A confirmed 'terroirist' and believer in the principals of biodynamics, Simon is already producing wines of outstanding quality at Trinites, located within the hills of Faugères and is amongst the first growers to bottle the newly created Coteaux du Languedoc Pezenas.
Tasting (Long)	This Syrah blend with soft black fruits and spice has been shaped by the sunbaked rocky soils of the Languedoc hinterland. A herbal, bay and peppery spice bouquet is followed by youthful red cherries and supple mineral character derived from the schist rich soils.
Tasting (Short)	This Syrah based blend offers herbal, bay and peppery spice aromas followed by youthful red cherries and supple mineral character.
Serving Suggestion	Match with grilled Mediterranean vegetables, lamb cous cous, rabbit and white meats and cheeses.
